Words of Wisdom About Summer :

“Rest is not idleness, and to lie sometimes on the grass under trees on a summer's day, listening to the murmur of the water, or watching the clouds float across the sky, is by no means a waste of time.”

John Lubbock (1834-1913) English banker, liberal politician, philanthropist and scientist.

“Let a man walk ten miles steadily on a hot summer's day along a dusty English road, and he will soon discover why beer was invented.”

Gilbert K. Chesterton (1874–1936) English writer, poet, philosopher, dramatist, journalist, orator, literary & art critic and biographer.

“I believe that summer is our time, a time for the people, and that no politician should be allowed to speak to us during the summer. They can start talking again after Labor Day.”

Lewis Black (1948 -) American comedian, author, playwright, social critic and actor.
