Words of Wisdom About Libraries:

A library is not a luxury but one of the necessities of life.”

Henry Ward Beecher (1813 – 1887) American Congregationalist clergyman, social reformer, and speaker,

“I must say I find television very educational. The minute somebody turns it on, I go to the library and read a good book.”

Groucho Marx (1890 – 1977) American comedian and film and television star

“Perhaps no place in any community is so totally democratic as the town library. The only entrance requirement is interest.”

Lady Bird Johnson (1912 – 2007) First Lady of the United States (1963–69),

“When I read about the way in which library funds are being cut and cut, I can only think that American society has found one more way to destroy itself.”

Isaac Asimov (1920 – 1992) American author and professor of biochemistry at Boston University, best known for his works of science fiction and for his popular science books
