Words of Wisdom About Summer:

“Let a man walk ten miles steadily on a hot summer's day along a dusty English road, and he will soon discover why beer was invented”.

G.K. Chesterton, (1874 – 1936) English writer, lay theologian, poet, philosopher, dramatist, journalist, orator, literary and art critic, biographer, and Christian apologist.

“I believe that summer is our time, a time for the people, and that no politician should be allowed to speak to us during the summer. They can start talking again after Labor Day.”

Lewis Black (1948-) American comedian, author, playwright, social critic and actor.

“Grilling outside with my parents at the Jersey shore. We would grill lobster and corn in the summer.” Bobby Flay (1964-) American celebrity chef, restaurateur and reality television personality.

“I like summer. I like warmer weather and long days. I'm one of those silly people who still enjoy lying in the sun - my children are horrified!”

Danielle Steel (1947-) American novelist.
