News of the weird (actual articles from today's paper)

-In Belarus, a fisherman wanted his photo shot with a beaver. The beaver had other ideas and "attacked the 60-year-old man with razor-sharp teeth, slicing an artery and causing him to bleed to death."

-Robert McDonough, 73, from Limington, Maine, was reported missing Monday. He was found Tuesday morning by the very news crew reporting on his disappearance, when the missing man walked out of the nearby woods, right onto the camera.

-German doctors say a man spent 15 years with a pencil in his head following a childhood accident.
